Find Your Business Gap

5-MINUTE CLARITY EXERCISE

Your experience has value. If building your business feels harder than it should, you may not need to do more. You may need to identify what needs attention first.

1 SCORE WHAT IS WORKING TODAY

Circle one number for each statement: 1 = unclear or inconsistent, 5 = clear and reliable.

DIRECTION

I know what I am building and the most important decision for this season.

1 2 3 4 5

OFFER

I can describe one specific result someone can pay me to help achieve.

1 2 3 4 5

AUDIENCE

I know who needs that result and how to begin genuine conversations.

1 2 3 4 5

STRUCTURE

I have a simple way to manage priorities, leads, follow-up, and delivery.

2 IDENTIFY YOUR STARTING POINT

Your lowest score points to a possible leading gap. If scores tie, choose the one that is making the next step hardest. This is a starting point, not a label.

3 CHOOSE ONE FAITHFUL NEXT STEP

My leading gap: _____

Why it matters now: _____

One specific action I will take within seven days:

_____

A MOMENT OF PRAYER

Lord, give me wisdom to recognize the next right step and courage to take it. | James 1:5

BRING THIS PAGE TO FINDING THE GAP

At the webinar, we will turn your starting point into one practical 30-day action.
